Who We Are-

Advantage Home Health Care opened its doors to the Northern Virginia Community in August 2007. We are licensed by the Virginia Department of Health to provide in-home care service. Our goal is to establish a healthy relationship with all our clients as well as their primary team including their family and all providers involved in the care. By doing so, Advantage HHCI is looking to maximize our clients' ability to fully rehabilitate, gain independence, and maintain their safety and welfare in their environment of choice.

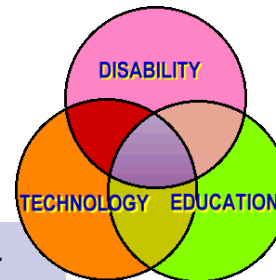

Advantage HHCI staff are dedicated in offering an individualized plan of care to clients of all ages and cultural backgrounds. We strongly believe that Kindness, Dignity, and Respect are a reflection of the quality care we provide.

ID Values that Support Life in the Community:

The Intellectual Disability Training Guide helps caregivers understand core values that will support disabled individuals in their day to day life and in connection to their community. Of these values are:

- Normalization
- Dignity Risk
- Community Presence and Participation
- Nonrestrictive Program Alternatives
- Natural Supports
- Personal Choice
- Respect
- Individual Rights
- Zero Reject.

Communication none the less is an essential factor in the support of the disabled community. This training guide teaches the caregiver to pay attention to improving the interactive process between themselves and the individuals they are taking care of.

Medicaid ID Waiver Services:

The Intellectual Disability Waiver in Virginia helps family members by financially supporting their loved one. The following services fall under the ID Waiver:

- Residential support,

- Day support,
